benjamins media, publisher of picture books for children for a very long time, is led by a dream team.

My wife first: she has been managing the project for nearly fifteen years. When she became pregnant, I arrived, and when she got it back (from her maternity leave), I stayed. It's been going on for twelve! Finally, Ludovic. He has been the sound director, the artist of benjamins media since 2006.

We have very different backgrounds - theater for Sophie, radio for me, cartoon for Ludovic - but the same goal: edit children's literature of high quality for all children, even the visually impaired.

Three collections available - Size S, M and L - 28 books for children aged 2 to 8. We publish four books per year and all our stories are interpreted, music and sounds. No sound effects, but soundscapes: the sound makes sense.

Rudy, editor.

Two little birds discover a white pompom. When moving, the pompom makes a sound - the sound of a harmonium! And if you put a white pompom next to another, you can draw figures: a line, a stair, a river. And yes: it creates a melody. Each pompom has a color and represents an instrument: a jew's harp, a sitar, a tabla... And the song appears at the end, when the tiger arrives.

Internationally acclaimed author Edouard Manceau invites us to discover how music scores work, as well as the instruments and songs from India. A wonderful trip into music and illustrations.
