INTERNATIONAL RIGHTS CATALOG 2019

Picture books and audio books for kids since the very old days

benjaminsmedia

benjamins media has been creating audio books for a very very long time. 31 years in 2018!

Our specialties: stylized illustrations, funny – and meaning! – stories, high quality books printed on offset paper. As for the audio, no sound effects but soundscapes (the sound makes sense). We work with talented and renowned authors such as Alan Mets, Aurélie Guillerey, Marie Nimier, Delphine Chedru, Ramona Badescu, Édouard Manceau, Michaël Escoffier...

Whatever his age, the child finds a size of book that fits perfectly to him: «S» if he's a toddler, «M» if he's less than 6 years and «L» if he can read. He wants a braille book with large characters? We have! An eBook version? We have! A version in sign language? We also have!

benjamins media , it's 2 editors, in place for nearly 16 years. Rudy, the director, Ludovic, the artist of benjamins media. We have very different backgrounds: cartoon for Ludovic and radio for Rudy, but the same goal: edit children's literature of high quality for all children.

Rudy, editor.

PLIP PLOP / FLIC FLAC

Age: 18 months+

A child wakes up. Naptime is over. Quick, quick, quick! He gobbles down his afternoon snack, puts on his wellington boots and raincoat, places his favourite soft toy in his backpack, and steps outside with his daddy. Hello, hello little walk! What an inexhaustible source of wonder for a child! And how touching for the parent accompanying his child to see his endless curiosity at play! Going for a walk is a near ritualistic outing for a parent and child, a moment for the two to bond as the child learns all about their surroundings. A beautiful story book, at a child's level, that both adults and little ones can relate to and enjoy.

It's the little bug coming up, and up and up... What's on your fingers?
You would not have traces of markers, tell me? Indeed! How did you see that?

It's the little bug coming up, and up and up... What's in your hand? Oh yes, some bread.

It's the little bug coming up and up
and up... What's on your forearm?
The end of your pajamas?

The little bug will help the child to know his body: fingers, wrist, arm, neck... if he is not interrupted by cuddles and kisses! A very musical story to read and to mime.

It is the story of a little rabbit, a blue shirt, a gray dungarees and a small orange bag, who goes on a journey. First of all, he is leaving with—tweet tweet—two small birds before taking—choo choo—the train, with—pin pin pin—two other friends... At the end of this joyous friendly farandole, the little rabbit finds himself again alone to read a little boo, a little boobook, a little book!

This is an astute book for toddlers. It works by clear and efficient accumulation. The reader, thanks to the magic of onomatopoeias has to guess the image that will follow. A book that takes the little ones for big ones!

In Winter, hugs help us keep cosy. They make us feel better until the weather gets warmer. In spring, hugs are fleeting and hang by a thread. Things are much more light-hearted under the starry summer sky – until autumn, when the leaves drop from the trees. It is time to leave the nest and start a new life. Hugs are useful all year long! All Round is a little black circle. He lives in a grey country where there's always noise. All round is bored: "Elsewhere, he thinks, it must be more beautiful!" He decides to take a tour around the world. The world is a great, blue ball. Anyway, that's what he's been told... So he leaves, wanting to find out! This is an excellent story for young children. It is poetic, realistic, charming and rhythmical. Children embark on a thrilling journey with a small black circle and discover a planet called the Big Blue, which is actually made up of all kinds of colours. The book uses all the senses, associating a colour – yellow, for example – with a feeling – warmth – and a sound on the CD. This magnificent album works with and without the CD.

Music and songs : Harmonium, sitar, Jew's harp

Two little birds discover a white pompom. When moving, the pompom makes a sound - the sound of a harmonium! And if you put a white pompom next to another, you can draw figures: a line, a stair, a river. And yes: it creates a melody. Each pompom has a color and represents an instrument: a jew's harp, a sitar, a tabla... And the song appears at the end, when the tiger arrives.

Internationally acclaimed author Edouard Manceau invites us to discover how music scores work, as well as the instruments and songs from India. A wonderful trip into music and illustrations.

Music: Reggae

Once upon a time there was a little black pig named Edgar. A black pig is quite rare... and Edgar lived alone, apart, as the rare being he was. Living alone is not always funny. One day of blues, Edgar packs his bags and tries to find other pigs to play and laugh with. He comes face to face with a flock of pink pigs...

As usual with Alan Metz, the story is both funny and deep. The author is the defender of a different being - apart, kind, open-minded. With a calculated economy of words and an even more stylized drawing the author invites children to be themselves to overturn prejudices.

Lisette and Pierrot are a couple without any children. Whilst out walking one day they find a little abandoned Wild Boar piglet. So they adopt her and name her Muriel. They teach Muriel everything she needs to know about how to be a grown up: How to brush her teeth morning and night, how to use a knife to eat, to say 'hello' and 'thank you' and 'good bye' and even how to flush the toilet. But Muriel was very curious and couldn't stop asking thousands of difficult questions, wanting to know everything about the world around her, and Pierrot and Lisette didn't know how to answer any of them. So, one day, they decided to send her to school...
